

What is Marketing?

Key thoughts to implement in your business

1. Marketing is NOT something you “do”
2. How do you building long lasting relationships with your prospects and customers?
3. Do your potential customers know exactly what your products and services can do for them?
4. Compared to other similar products or services, where do your products and services fall in the continuum of how they serve your customers’ needs?

